

AFRICAN DRUMMING WORKSHOPS

James Clark Music runs African Drumming Workshops in and around Kent, East Sussex and London. These workshops are great fun and suitable for all ages and abilities.

Young people in particular find drumming has a particular appeal and our workshops promote a genuine and lasting introduction to music through working as a team to create African rhythms.

Whether primary or secondary school students or private events, everyone can benefit from the experience and most importantly have some great fun!

For sample prices and contact details
see overleaf

We offer a wide range of schemes for children and adults to get involved in African Drumming. These include:

 One-off workshops

 Weekly workshops for schools either in music lessons or as lunchtime, after-school or holiday clubs leading up to a public performance

 One-hour, half-day, full-day or custom-made workshops for schools, colleges, private events or businesses

 Private tuition, either individual or in groups

 If required we can even make a professional quality CD recording of any final performance

James Clark Music supplies all the instruments, which mostly comprise African Djembe drums and mixed percussion

Prices:	1 hour Workshop	£30
	Half-day Workshop	£85
	Full-day Workshop	£165
	Lunch or After	£3 per head
	School Drum Club	(minimum 10)

Prices for multiple workshops, holiday clubs, corporate clients, individual lessons or other custom-made packages are available on request.

James Clark Music
1 Apsley Street,
Rusthall, Tunbridge Wells,
Kent TN4 8NU

Tel: 01892 548668

Mob: 07738818929

Email: info@jamesclarkmusic.co.uk

Web: www.jamesclarkmusic.co.uk

